2d Session

S. 2887

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

APRIL 12 (legislative day, FEBRUARY 6), 1978

Mr. HOLLINGS (by request) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation

A BILL

To amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934 to permit foreign embassies to operate fixed and mobile radio facilities at the seat of government in the Very High Frequency and Ultra High Frequency bands for the express purpose of providing protective security for ambassadors and other designated personnel, with the right to operate such facilities in the United States thereof, being based upon reciprocity.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That the Communications Act of 1934 is amended by the 4 addition of a new subsection (e) as follows:

5 "(e) The provisions of sections 301, 303, and 310 of 6 this Act notwithstanding, the President may, provided he 7 determines it to be consistent with and in the interest of

1 national security, authorize a foreign government, under 2 such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, to operate
3 base station radio facilities at or near the site of the 4 embassy or legation of such foreign government and mobile
5 stations to the distance of fifty kilometers, to provide 6 protective security for ambassadors and designated personnel
7 where he determines that the authorization would be consistent 8 with the national interest of the United States and where 9 such foreign government has provided reciprocal privileges
10 to the United States to operate similar base and mobile
11 radio facilities within territories subject to its juris-
12 diction. Foreign government radio facilities authorized
13 pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall conform
14 to such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe.
15 The authorization for such radio facilities and the renewal,
17 modification, suspension, revocation, or other termination
18 of such authority shall be in accordance with such procedures
19 as may be established by the President and shall not be 20 subject to the other provisions of this Act or of the 21 Administrative Procedure Act."
